

Ready for Annual Charity Ball

Ambassador Hotel will be the setting Sept. 21 when the Wives of the Los Angeles Police Officers present their second annual Charity Ball. Manny Harmon and his orchestra will play for dancing and among honored guests will be Fire Chief Raymond Hill and Police Chief Tom Reddin. Reservations for the formal affair, which will begin at 8 p.m., are being handled in the harbor area by Mrs. Richard Connor. Deadline for tickets, which include a late supper, is Sept. 10. Area couples enjoying a happy hour as they prepare to attend the ball are, from left, David Poiry talking with Mrs. Tom Haire while Mr. Haire discusses the event with Mrs. Poiry. Summer Fun Time for H. Schooley Family

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Schooley, 2550 Eldorado, arrived home Aug. 12 from Norfolk, Va., concluding a summer with their daughter and family. On June 9, their daughter, Mrs. James Whittington (Marlene Schooley) who had not been home in more than four years, arrived from Norfolk, Va., with her six children, Corene, Michel, Mark, James, Shirley and Deanna. Mr. Whittington is a BT 1/C with the United States Navy. On Father's Day, the Schooleys entertained 150 friends at an Open House honoring their daughter. Among the other parties for Mrs. Whittington during her visit, was a luncheon given by her aunts, Mmes. Herbert Meredith, Fred Brownell, Vera Niemeyer and Ruth Lutes, and her grandmother Mrs. Dora Schooley. During the luncheon, held at a local tea room, the 16 family members presented the honoree with a clock. She and her parents also attended the 40th wedding anniversary party for her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Quandt in Caruthers. The Quandts are former Torrance residents. On July 16, Mrs. Whittington and her children accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Schooley left by train for Virginia. During four weeks in Norfolk, Mr. and Mrs. Schooley took the three older children, Corene, Michel, and Mark on a three-day trip to Washington, D. C., where they saw the Senate in session. They visited many historical places, including Williamsburg.
